

A Fine Pair

Derek and Rich, together they itch
Hard at work dig out that ditch
Their craft and their trade
New build well made

Like father like son
No fear not this one
He's thinking, another itch
Just planning, that's Rich

A chippy, a lecky
Jack of all, that's Tricky
From foundations to a wall
Up on roofs, way up tall

Is he a builder, or a bricky?
That's our Derek, not our Tricky
Take it slow keep it tight
Every course laid, must be right

Built these walls long and tall
All year round fall to fall
Loves his music and his bike
Tells tall tales, takes a pint

Both together, now there's a mare
The nosey come looking, some to stare
Mind that mixer, I say take care
His car for certain, is past its wear

Grub's up time for snap
Both look up expecting a trap
It's time for lunch and a brew
Feed and chat, sup a few
For these two are special and life must be fair
As they both make a very fine pair
