

Fine

Fine wine and fine food
Good spirit lifts the mood
Nice folk, fresh as thyme
Quality life, more time to dine

New venture new challenge, with family in store
Making a move we all so adore
Deserve the best for many a good deed
We wish you well and hope you succeed

With nature in mind
The right manner, so kind
Vin rouge, vin blanc
Bouquet so right, no room for plonk
When a new one to source
It's the big man of course

Cheeses for every palate
Local produce, tasty salad, all first rate
Many fruits with a passion
Only the best, not any fashion

Olives and oil, Mediterranean sunshine
Fish for long life, tasty so fine
Pasta and rice from far afield
Breads of the world even local yield

With quality in mind
With people so kind
Keep all happy, people no bind
With many for you, you'll also find

Love and happiness
Just "Fine"
