

Human Animals

Why are they so cruel?
Only themselves to fool
 No life as a robber
No peace so why bother

Human evil and deceit
No other animal can compete
 A thief or a mugger
Only other lives to bugger

The envy and the greed
What human animals we breed
Bigots hide behind, another's creed
Poison minds, hypocrites never to be freed

Much anger and violence
The target pure innocence
The capacity for anger for vile
No point to hide or lock up a while

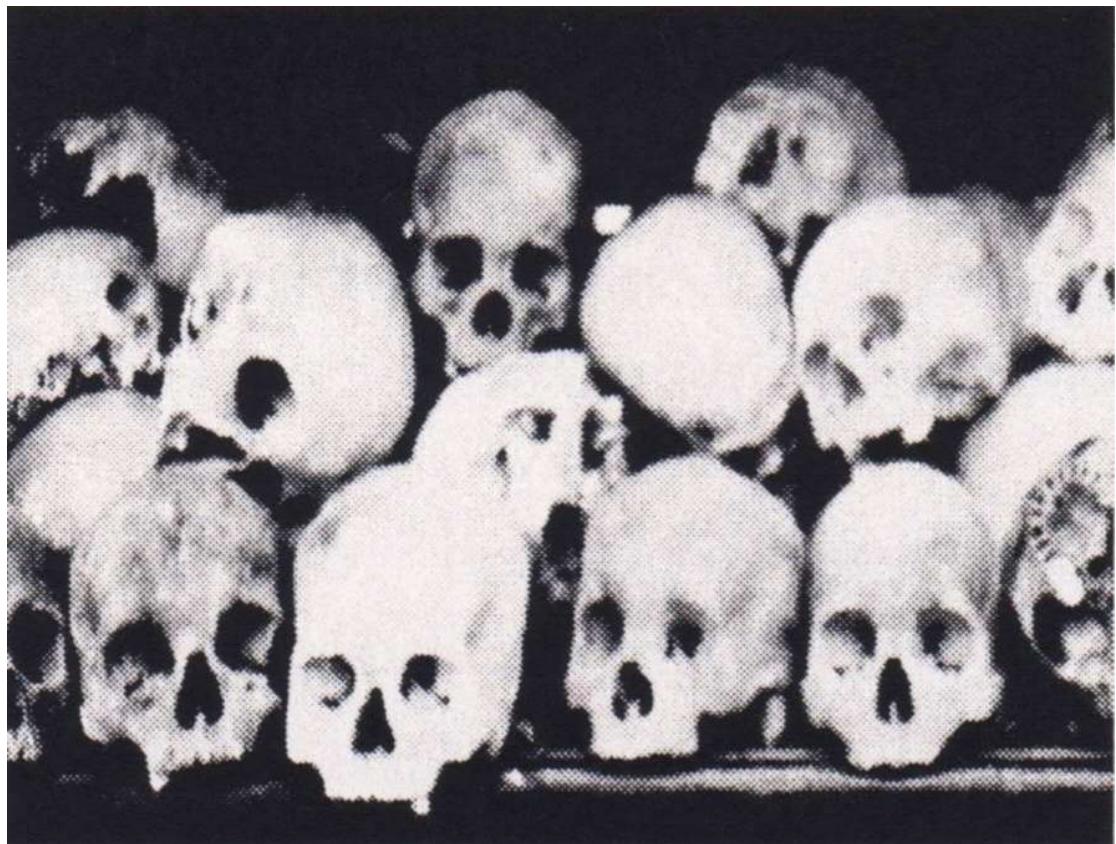

People whose idle gossip just spits
Spread by frivolous and vexatious twists
 Mustn't gossip, mustn't grumble
 Get a life, don't rumble

The selfish who covet
Their animals they pet
No time for humans, no not yet
Hypocrites the lot, what a life to get

No matter the creed, they pray to be freed
 Do bad deeds all week
 Wear some zealot symbol, a freak
 Hidden hypocrites all hype
 Some God forgive this type
