

Let Me Be

Am I too far gone
Have I left it too long
Can't even cope
With a silly old dote

Reminded me of a witch
But this one's just an itch
When will she go away
How much longer must she stay
To haunt me every day

How could it get this far now
Why me, why this, why now
Where to, where from, where now
What for, what if, what now
Who to, who cares, who now
When to, when to go, when now

I feel alone, so alone
Too far gone for anyone
When will it ever end
When will they ever bend

Forget all the hype
Who really gives a shite
A whole hill of beans
For no reason it means

I wonder alone as a stranger
Hoping to miss, some people, all danger
Maybe they'll pass, no one to beep
Let me alone,
Let me to keep
Let me be
Let Me Be

Let Me Be
