Piss this Triva: Was inspired by the regular games we played as part of therapy at the Retreat in your treatment

Piss this Trivia

With eyes, nowhere to be seen
A bottom lip that seems to gleam
 Hair in a ball, a baseball cap
Talks all lingo, it's tennis star rap

At mealtimes as cool as frost
 Nibbles away at her crusts
 Ryes still hidden from view
Beneath the cap, pretends to chew

I'm pissed off, I'm bored
As the temperature it soared
"Let's play a game", says Andi
Yes trivia, good idea, just handy

It's fever pitch, it's competitive now
As the stakes are laid, somehow
 Har's off to a great start
Answers out of turn, it's Andi, oh fart

She's five-one up and her throw
Oh no, wrong answer, that's a big blow
 It's now running like ice
 It's Har's luck with the dice

Then Andi the randy does rally
As cheeses he's gaining in tally
Har's for the game, she misses, so vain
Oh shit that's not fair, it's happened again

Then comes the decisive moment
This could be the tournament
 It's Andi, I'm all in
 All his cheeses all grin

One right answer, the final score
It's Andi 6-5, dancing on the floor
 Oh Har she's distraught,
 I couldn't be caught

She did well, good game well fought

My dice what a farce, you arse
Good sport in the bin, she has to win
The sky is blue, so what's new I'm off to Bolivia,
